PART III - NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail why Form 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-CEN, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

Revlon, Inc. (the "Company") is unable to file, without unreasonable effort and expense, its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2018 (the "2018 Form 10-K") by the prescribed filing date.

The principal reason for the delay is the recent identification of a material weakness, which has created the need for additional time to finalize management's assessment and the audits of the effectiveness of internal control over financial reporting as of December 31, 2018. The Company expects to disclose in its 2018 Form 10-K that it identified a material weakness in its internal control over financial reporting as of year-end 2018, primarily related to the lack of design and maintenance of effective controls in connection with the previously-disclosed implementation of its enterprise resource planning ("ERP") system in the U.S.

The Company does not expect any changes to its previously-reported preliminary financial results, including the financial results that it previously reported in its press release furnished as Exhibit 99.1 to the Company's Current Report on Form 8-K filed with the SEC on March 18, 2019. Upon completion of the audits, the Company expects to file its 2018 Form 10-K within the extension period of 15 calendar days as provided under Rule 12b-25 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act").

The Company is working diligently along with its external auditor to complete its work and audit and expects to file the 2018 Form 10-K within the grace period prescribed by Rule 12b-25 under the Exchange Act.

Forward-Looking Statements

This filing contains a number of forward-looking statements. Words such as "expect," "will," "working," and variations of such words and similar future or conditional expressions are intended to identify forward-looking statements. These forward-looking statements include, but are not limited to, statements regarding our beliefs and expectations relating to the filing of the 2018 Form 10-K and the results of the ongoing audit. These forward-looking statements are based on management's current expectations, are not guarantees of future results and are subject to a number of risks and uncertainties, many of which are difficult to predict and beyond the Company's control. These statements are neither promises nor guarantees, but involve known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other important factors that may cause the Company's actual results, performance or achievements to be materially different from any future results, performance or achievements expressed or implied by the forward-looking statements, including, but not limited to the risk that the Company may not be able to complete the filing of its 2018 Form 10-K within the 15-day extension permitted by SEC rules, and the possibility that the ongoing audit of the Company's ICFR may require changes to its consolidated financial statements or additional control deficiencies. Other important factors are discussed in detail in the risk factors included in the Company's prior SEC filings. The Company disclaims and does not undertake any obligation to update or revise any forward-looking statement in this report, whether as a result of future events, new information or otherwise, except as required by applicable law or regulation.
